Maben and her daughter Annalee walk along a lonely highway, a black garbage bag of clothes their only possession. Three days of 'walking to nowhere' have rendered them dead tired, nearly out of money, and desperate to get to a place of safety. When Maben decides to use the last of her money for a cheap truck-stop motel room, she has no idea that she´s setting into motion a chain of events from which they may never be free. Russell Gaines has just been released from 11 years in prison. He returns to the small Mississippi Town where he grew up in the hopes returning to the Life he should have led. His life is filled with poor choices and bad decisions....

Everyone in 'Desperation Road' is a Victim. Each character is filled with desperation.... Michael FARRIS SMITH has a way with words that drew me in immediately and held me under its spell. The Book is Elegant, even Profound,
